

To engage the youth of Pukhtunkhwa in a constructive discourse about issues of peace and development, democracy, human rights, and civil responsibilities, the BKTEF in partnership with the Hanns-Siedel Foundation has started a one year program of youth development.

Youth Leadership Training of Trainers Program currently enrolls 24 young men and women belonging from Khbyer Pakhtunkhwa and FATA. A group from among these participants will be selected to further impart trainings on district level. The one-year program aspires to benefit approximately 600 youth across the province.
